A word from our Chief Executive

Welcome to SLF's first bi-annual e-newsletter. We've had a busy few months and some great successes we want to share with you. We've just celebrated our volunteers' success with the first SLF Volunteer Awards and are proud to announce Sir Paul Stephenson as our new President – welcome aboard!

It's been a difficult six months for London with newspapers full of redundancies and bleak news, but we're thrilled to be able to announce that Interserve have pledged their support and have joined the Safer London Foundation Club.

Thanks to everyone for your continued support – I hope to see you at an event or project very soon.

Best wishes,

Tony Shepherd
Chief Executive

1. Sir Paul Stephenson confirmed as President of SLF

Sir Paul Stephenson QPM

We are pleased to announce that following his appointment as Met Commissioner, Sir Paul Stephenson has agreed to join us as President of Safer London Foundation.

Sir Paul recently hosted a lunch for SLF with key stakeholders, including senior representatives from London's public, voluntary and commercial sectors.

Sir Paul has always given SLF his full support and we look forward to working closely with him in the future.

3. Interserve joins forces with SLF

We're pleased to announce that Interserve has become the latest company to pledge its support to SLF.

The new partnership will see Interserve donate £75,000 over the next three years to SLF in return for membership of the Safer London Foundation Club. As a Foundation Club member, Interserve's employees will have access to the training needed for involvement in mentoring programmes run by SLF and will be given the chance to take an active role in the work of this unique charity.

Interserve Executive Director, Bruce Melizan, will also join the board of trustees and will be making a valuable contribution to the charity's governance.

Welcome aboard, Interserve!

4. SLF celebrates volunteering excellence

Tony, Janis and Nick at the awards event

SLF's Volunteer Awards 2009 were held on 3rd June at Candy & Candy's offices in Westminster.

Nick Candy, SLF Vice-President, kindly hosted the event, which saw Janis Wharton of Spires Streetlink win the SLF Volunteer Award 2009 and Jennifer Blake, of Eternal Life Support Centre, recognised with a Special Award. Other winners on the day were Barry Duckett of Rotherhithe Angling Club (1st runner up) and Kelly l'Yare of Youth Empowerment Solution (2nd runner up).

Congratulations to all our winners and thanks again to Nick Candy for hosting this superb event.
